| ATE OF CONTENT. ATE OBTAINED 6 November 1951 EFFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1X 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 1h October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Crossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Cernans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 2, 9, and 10 October, on 1h October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after mightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the hangare. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locanotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the wost edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. | OUNTRY_C | ermany (Soviet Zone) | Je zoo frog marria in | CRMATION REPORT NO. |
|--|---|---|--|--|
| ATE OF CONTENT. ATE OBTAINED BETTERENCES AGES 1ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) EMARKS 1. Local residents from Crossemhain reported on 1h October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Crossemhain airfield were diseaseabled and packed in crates as af the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Plying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans emphyed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 0, 9, and 10 October. On 1h October, nine jet fighters were packed at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with apolicits in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spet on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a win-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxled behind the harpara. Mount 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locacotive with 15 loaded fileders was observed at the spur track on the wort eage of the field. The first Soviet dependents bearded the train during the night first since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION ASCENT/COUTROL/US GEVICILIS CLY | OPICC | rossenhain Airfield | | 25X1A |
| AGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) 25X1X 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 1h October 1951 that the jet flighters stationed at Crossenhain suffised were disassenhed and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On S and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Spriet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russfan weren who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on S, 9, and 10 October. On 1h October, nine jot flighters were parked at the rumway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with specificits in operation. The nine jot planes were still purised the same spect on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 land-od at the field and taxied behind the hargers. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locarcity with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the gipt track on the work edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25XA | VALUATION_ | see below | PLACE OBTAINED_ | 25X1A |
| 25X1X 1. Local residents from Crossemain reported on 1h October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Crossemain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Piesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Cornans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dopendent were to leave for the U.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was shareyed at the field on 8, 9, and 10 October. On 1h October, nine jet fighters were parked at the rummy and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with speciligits in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 1b. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 3 landed at the field and taxied behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locemotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the sput track on the wost edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A CLASSIFICATION Document No. 2 Rechara to first provided the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Document No. 2 Rechara to first provided that the field. | ATE OF CO | NTENT. | - | |
| 25X1X 1. Local residents from Crosseshain reported on In October 1951 that the Jet Sighters stationed at Crosseshain sirfield were disasseshed and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Discisle engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Cornans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Swice of Officers and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was nonerved at the field on S, 9, and 10 October. On 11 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 1. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 3 landed at the field and taxied behind the langers, About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locacotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the wort edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X1C 25X1C CLASSIFICATION EXCENT/COLTEDL/US OFFICIALS CHY Document Fs. 2 Recent | DATE OBTAIN | IED | REJURN | 6 Hovember 1951 |
| 25X1X 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 1h October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Crossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was necerved at the field on 3, 9, and 10 October. On 1h October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with opoliticits in operation. The nine jet planes were atill parked at the same spet on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the langars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locarotive with 15 loaded flaters was observed at the spur track on the west edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X1C 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Document No. 2. Document No. 2. No Characte for the Parket Comment No. 2. No Characte for the present report the field. | REFERENCES | | LIBR | Apy CIA |
| 25X1X 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 1h October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Crossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was choserved at the field on 3, 9, and 10 October. On 1h October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with opotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were atill parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the langars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locamotive with 15 loaded flaters was observed at the spur track on the west edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Crossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION Document No. 2 ROCAMON DOCUM | AGES | 1ENCLOSURES | (NO. & TYPE) | 448 g |
| 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 14 October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Grossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Seviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Mussian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 9, 9, and 10 October. On 14 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locanotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the wost edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION Document Po. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION Document Po. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION | REMARKS | | | PROPERTY POLICE THE CONTROL OF THE C |
| 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 14 October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Grossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Seviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 9, 9, and 10 October. On 14 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after mightfall, night flying was practiced with spetlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 3 landed at the field and taxled behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locanotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the wost edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Crossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION Document No. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION Document No. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION | | | | |
| 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 14 October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Grossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Seviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Mussian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 9, 9, and 10 October. On 14 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locanotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the wost edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION Document Po. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION Document Po. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION | | | | |
| 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 14 October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Grossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Seviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Mussian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 9, 9, and 10 October. On 14 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locanotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the wost edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION Document Po. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION Document Po. 2. No Character CLASSIFICATION | | | | |
| 1. Local residents from Crossenhain reported on 14 October 1951 that the jet fighters stationed at Crossenhain airfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Germans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 0, 9, and 10 October. On 14 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after mightfall, night flying was practiced with spetlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 3 landed at the field and taxled behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a loccombite with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the sput track on the wort edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Crossenhain sirfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION Document Mo. 2. No Character College of the Classification of the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. | Half-Dermit Miller or from Pooline of a proceeding on the man | e to the second | | |
| jet fighters stationed at Crossenhain ainfield were disassembled and packed in crates as of the beginning of October. The crated aircraft were to be shipped to the U.S.S.R. Flying was considerably reduced recently. 2. On 5 and 6 October, Diesel engines and aircraft parts were being loaded at the field. The Cernans exployed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.S.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 2, 2, and 10 October. On 11 October, nine jet fightors were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spetlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. h. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxled behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locamotive with 15 loaded flatcars was observed at the spur track on the west edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25XA Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Document Fig. A state of the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Procument Fig. A state of the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Procument Fig. A state of the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Procument Fig. A state of the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Procument Fig. A state of the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. Procument Fig. A state of the pertain of the pertain transferred from the field. Procument Fig. A state of the pertain transferred fro | | | | 25X1X |
| the field. The Cormans employed at the installation were given leave until 20 October. Soviet officers and soldiers were packing. Their dependent were to leave for the U.S.C.R. Russian women who recently arrived at the field were issued uniforms. 3. No flying was observed at the field on 8, 9, and 10 October. On 14 October, nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. 4. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxled behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locanotive with 15 loaded flatears was observed at the spur track on the west edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two flighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document Me. Reflection of the fload of the fload of the field of the fload of the field. | 1. | jet fighters station in crates as of the | ned at Crossenhain air beginning of October | rfield were disassembled and packed . The crated aircraft were to be |
| nine jet fighters were parked at the runway and, after nightfall, night flying was practiced with spotlights in operation. The nine jet planes were still parked at the same spot on 15 October. h. About 2 p.m. on 16 October, a twin-engine transport with the number 8 landed at the field and taxied behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locomotive with 15 loaded flatcars was observed at the spur track on the west edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION SECRET/COUTROL/US OFFICIALS CHAY Document No. 2 No Change to Ch | | the field. The Cermi until 20 October. So were to leave for the | ans employed at the in oviet officers and sol he U.S.S.R. Russian wor | nstallation were given leave Idiers were packing. Their dependents |
| ed at the field and taxied behind the hangars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, a locomotive with 15 loaded flatcars was observed at the spur track on the west edge of the field. The first Soviet dependents boarded the train during the night from 16 to 17 October. 25X*A Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No. 2 No Change in Classification Document No. 2 No Change in Classification | 3. | nine jet fighters we flying was practiced | ere parked at the run I with spotlights in o | way and, after nightfall, night operation. The nine jet planes were |
| Comment. Other sources have not observed any flying at Grossenhain airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present report it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION CLASSIFICATION Document No. 2 No Change in Classific Control Decides Decides | | ed at the field and a locomotive with 19 west edge of the fid | taxied behind the har 5 loaded flatcars was old. The first Soviet | gars. About 3 p.m. on 17 October, observed at the spur track on the |
| airfield since the beginning of October 1951. According to the present repor it is believed that the two fighter regiments and the pertaining ground units were transferred from the field. CLASSIFICATION SECRET/COUTROL/US OFFICIALS CHLY Bocument No. 2 No Change in Classific Course in | 25/10 | | | |
| CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY Document No. 2 No Change in Class III | 25X * A | airfield since the lit is believed that | peginning of October 1 the two fighter regin | 1951. According to the present report. |
| CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY Document No. 2 No Change in Class III | | | ្រ មិនិភពសិទ្ធ ម៉ូស្ទិសិសិ | () () () () |
| CLASSIFICATION CREET/CONTROL/US OFFICIALS CHLY Bocument No. 2 No Change in Class Companies Com | | | | |
| Document No. 2 No Change In State State Description | | | The second contractors of the second contrac | |
| Bocument No. 2 No Change in Clara Company | | | O | ha assurante assert |
| No Change to City of The Design | | CLASSIFICAT | HON SECRET/CONTROL/ | US OFFICIALS ONLY |
| No Change to Cine (17) Destina | | | | |
| Beritan Deritan | | | At. | |
| Ulass, Utass, Ut | | | | Desition |
| Approved For Release 2001/03/06 : CIA-RDP82-00457R009500060002-3 | 1 | Approved For Releas | se 2001/03/06 : CIA-R | DP82-00457R009500060002-3 |